

Session C22 – Business Continuity Management

About the Speaker

Neville Morcom

Neville is a principal based in the San Francisco Enterprise Risk Services practice of Deloitte & Touche . He has 22 years of experience that includes financial and information systems auditing, information systems security and integrity consulting, enterprise risk management, system project assurance and quality oversight, business continuity and disaster recovery planning, and data quality and integrity consulting. Currently he leads the western region Business Continuity Planning and Disaster Recovery teams.

He has led a number of significant projects focused on assisting clients with their Business Continuity or Disaster Recovery Planning efforts including, facilitation of workshops to prioritize business processes, implement corporate-wide business continuity management practices, the preparation of business continuity, disaster recovery, and emergency response plans.