

Session C31 – Software Development Life Cycle

About the Speaker

Heather Stewart

Heather Stewart is a Senior Manager in the San Francisco Risk Advisory Services practice and focuses on Business & System Controls for global and national clients. She is experienced in business process analysis and redesign, security redesign and implementation and configurable controls, including experience specific to various Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) systems. Her experience includes package selection, functionality optimization, control design, assessment and implementation, business transformation, and information technology-related consulting.