

Session E11 – Internet’s Impact on Financial Crime

About the Speaker

Wilborne

Wilborne graduated from the University of Tennessee in 1977 with a BS in Criminal Justice and from there in 1982 with a Masters in Law Enforcement Administration. He has been serving in law enforcement since 1976. He was employed by a municipal police department in Tennessee from 1976 until 1985 when he joined the Secret Service. He then served in the Nashville, Tenn. Field Office until 1989 when he transferred to Washington, D.C. While in Washington he was assigned to the Washington Field Office, Secret Service Headquarters, The Presidential Protection Detail and Counter Assault Team. In 1997 he transferred to Fresno, CA as the Resident Agent and in 2001 he transferred to the San Francisco Field Office. He has supervised the Electronic Crimes Task Force there for the last two years.