

Session C23 – IT Architectural Reviews

By San Sri and Shawn Matta, Deloitte & Touche

Topic Summary

This session will ensure that IS auditors can effectively evaluate an organization's architecture and technical infrastructure. The advent of the internet has created powerful new business processes as well as emerging risks for IT Risk management. The content covers the development, acquisition and implementation of IS architectures and associated operational practices to ensure efficiency and information security.