

Session C31 – Software Development Life Cycle

By Heather Stewart

Topic Summary

This session is designed for auditors new to Information Systems auditing and will address SDLC phases, cover key risks and control exposures for a systems development project, and provide tactical methods to effectively audit SDLC.