

Name:	Tia D. Ilori
Presentation Title:	Visa's Strategy to Secure the Payment System
Abstract:
The presentation will provide an overview on data security risk and vulnerabilities Visa has identified in today's market and outline Visa's data security programs and initiatives for 2008/2009. The presentation will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Data compromise trends and top five security vulnerabilities • Merchant compliance initiatives • Small merchant education efforts • Payment Application Mandates All organizations which store, process or transmit cardholder data are required to comply with the PCI DSS. This session provides an opportunity for these organizations to hear directly from Visa on data security issues as well as participate in a brief question-and-answer period after the presentation.
Target Audience:
The presentation is geared toward stakeholders (e.g., security, compliance and financial professionals) involved in day-to-day compliance efforts, and anyone interested in gaining insight into the PCI Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) and Visa's associated compliance validation programs.
COBIT Objectives:

Speaker Bio:
Tia D. Ilori is a compliance Program Manager with Visa Inc's Payment System Security Compliance group. Throughout her tenure at Visa she's held numerous positions throughout the organization in areas such as Fraud Investigations and Incident Management where she served as a Fraud Investigator. During her role as a Fraud Investigator, Tia was directly responsible for investigating and managing merchant security breaches and cardholder data compromises. In her current role, as a Program Manager, Tia is responsible for promoting and managing Visa's Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS) Level 1 and Level 2 merchant compliance program and directly overseeing management of Visa's two-day acquirer and merchant PCI DSS training seminars.	