Speaker Bio:
Todd Weinman is Lander International's Regional Recruiting Director for the Western United States. Todd is a graduate of UC Berkeley and worked for several years for a local Big 5 public accounting firm prior to entering the field of Executive Recruiting. As a recruiter, Todd enjoys visiting audit, information security, and consulting departments throughout the Western United States, and he is in contact on a daily basis with scores of Directors, Managers and staff level professionals from around the region. Todd has become a frequent speaker for ISACA and IIA, to local universities, to the Group of 25, and to audit committees. He has been on the Board of Directors for the San Francisco chapter of ISACA since 1998 and has served a term as chapter President. Todd has also written or been interviewed for numerous publications and professional journals, including the Wall Street Journal. Todd strives to extend the role of executive recruiter to be a true career counselor, and he has authored numerous articles for professional journals. In June of 1999 Todd was honored by the California Association of Personnel Consultants at its annual conference by receiving the coveted "Consultant of the Year" award. One individual recruiter in the entire state was singled out for this honor. Todd is an advocate of living the well-balanced life. When he is not recruiting, Todd pursues his passion for music as a professional classical musician. In addition to having spent four years performing with the Philharmonic Orchestra of Santiago, Chile, Todd has performed music on four continents, and he has performed with a variety of Northern California ensembles, including the San Francisco Symphony, Stockton Symphony, and Yo-Yo Ma's Silk Road Ensemble, and the Aspen Summer Music Festival.
