

Name:	Donald E. Hester
Presentation Title:	Windows Server 2008 / Windows Vista SP1
Abstract:	Windows Server 2008 and Vista service pack 1 has many new improvements and has a focus on virtualization, high availability and security. Learn about these features and some of the deployment options for this new server product. Learn how Windows Vista and Windows Server 2008 work together. Topics covered Windows Server 2008 security features, availability, virtualization and concerns of the new server operating system.
Target Audience:	Beginner–Intermediate Audit–Security
COBIT Objectives:	At least PO9, AI1, AI6, DS3, DS4, DS5, DS9, DS11, & ME1
Speaker Bio:	Donald is the Information Systems & Security Manager, consultant, and auditor for Maze & Associates. His clients include local municipalities, non-profits and federal government agencies, specializing in a wide array of compliance programs such as PCI, FISMA, COBIT and ISO17799. He is a Guest lecturer and speaker on security topics. Donald received his bachelors, with honors, in Security Management with a concentration in Information Security from American Military University. His certifications include; CISSP, CAP, CISA, MCT, MCSE Security, MCSA Security, MCDST, Security+ and CTT+. Donald also teaches at San Diego City College and for the California State Chancellor's office.